THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

The Daily News of East Washington has suspended publication.

Oscar Nauck was yesterday appointed commissioner in the court in banc on motion of Mr. Job Barnard.

Col. Worthington, the new district attorney, yesterday received his commission, and will to-day qualify and enter upon his new duties.

Mr. Wright, of the firm of Wright & McCoy proprietors of the Fine museum, yesterday applied for a warrant against McCoy, to get some papers that he claims.

The commissioners have notified C. H.
Armes that they cannot recommend the approval of house bill confirming the order of the commissioners in closing Meridian avenue.

The commissioners have notified Lorenzo S. Sait, who complained of a pool of stagnant water in lot 21, square 743, that the nuisance can only be abated by draining the place, which the commissioners cannot authorize.

Louis S. Horgan yesterday filed a bill in equity against John H. Rice, administrator of the estate of George L. Hammaker. The complainant asks that an injunction be restrained from making distribution or assignment of the surplus that will remain of the insolvent estate upon and under the award of the Mexican indemnity fund, amounting to several thousand dollars.

"What a way to spell fish," said Pat, when he saw the name Pyche on a ship. But a more wonderful spell will be exerted over that confounding child of yours that keeps itself and you awake, if you will try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The Late Robberies.
The citizens of Northeast Washington are up in arms against an organization of thieves that have infested that neighborhood for several weeks. The gang has committed several daring robberies during the past two weeks, and some of them in broad daylight. Among the persons robbed were Mr.
Hannah E. Morris, No. 10 DeFrees street, several parlor ornaments and old family relics; Mrs. Thompson, 12 DeFrees street, a lace shawl, valued at $14, and other articles; Mr.
Brown, 60 DeFrees street, several family pictures; Mrs. Pease, 40 DeFrees street, a lot of coal and wood; poison administered to her watch dog. Others robbed were Mrs.
Woodridge, 30 DeFrees street, a number of pictures taken off the parlor walls; Mr. F.
Coyle, 40 F street northeast, a quantity of bedding stolen off the beds; Mrs. Suter, No. 2 I street northeast; the physician's overcoat off the rack while he was up stairs. These are only a few of the cases. Residents of that locality mentioned at least six more of recent occurrence. Large quantities of clothing have been stolen from the lines during the day time. It would seem that the services of a competent detective might be utilized in this neighborhood.

The Coroner's Inquest.
The coroner's jury yesterday viewed the remains of W. P. Brown, the colored miner, whose terrible death in the water works shaft was detailed in yesterday's REPUBLICAN.
The body was afterward turned over to his relatives for burial. A thorough investigation of the shaft and scene of the accident was then made by the juryman, four of whom descended into the pit. Considerable testimony was collected yesterday evening, and the inquest will be held at 11 o'clock today. The district commissioners have given full instructions to Coroner Patterson as to the conduct of the examination, and Engineer Commissioner Lydecker has given his hearty consent.

Allen's Brain Food rejuvenates worn out constitutions; it is the best tonic for nervousness, nervous debility, and premature old age.
$1. At druggists.

Divorce Granted.
Rebecca N. Burdett, by Mr. H. B. Moulton, yesterday filed a bill for divorce against Charles Burdett. They were married in 1877 and three children have been born to them.
She charges cruel treatment and relates instances of his trying to kill her. She also averts that in November last he left her and put a man in the house; that he once took her to a house on Maryland avenue, near Third street, and endeavored to get her to occupy a room with him, but she refused.

Judge James yesterday made a decree in the case of Isabella Dodson against James H.
Dodson for divorce. They were married in 1871 and she charged desertion and cruelty.

Smoke Commercial Cigars.

To Dissolve Partnership.
Joseph W. Stryker yesterday filed a bill in equity against W. J. Maberly for the dissolution of the partnership of Maberly & Stryker, and the appointment of a receiver. They formed a special partnership in 1882 for the prosecution of claims against the United States. Plaintiff states that he complied with his part of the contract, and expended considerable money in their business. He charges that the defendant became intemperate, and has applied to his use certain money, besides the defendant never made a settlement. A temporary restraining order was granted by Judge Hagner, returnable Feb. 1.

"Rotten on Cigars" Troches. 15c.; Liquid, 50c.

Old Residents.
Sudden and serious illness seems to have fallen upon many of the oldest inhabitants of East Washington, and among them may be mentioned Mrs. Hoeke, of Eighth street, the venerable mother of Mr. Wm.
Hoeke, of the firm of Hoeke & Singleton; Mr. A. Pons, and Mrs. Fair, all of whom live within a few doors of each other. They are numbered among the long-ago settlers in that section, and it is to be hoped that their sickness may not prove so fatal as has been represented.

CLUTSVILLE, ALA.—Dr. W. Carter says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters in my own family for indigestion with great benefit."

Marriage Licenses.
Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Charles P. Twaddell, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mary Nichell, of Alsacia, Germany; Clarence Johnson and Eliza Hennigan, Howard Smallwood and Alice Demmes, Henry Rupertus and Martha Schneider, James A.
Hill and Amelia V. Stone, both of Prince George's county, Maryland; Leonard B. Jay and Mabel Green.

Building Permits.
Building permits were issued yesterday to C. F. Willett, to make repairs at corner of Third and C streets northeast, to cost $150; Thomas Condon, to make repairs at 1503 Fifteenth street northwest, to cost $200; E.
T. McElroy, to make repairs at 1803 D street northwest, to cost $300; J. M. Duva, to make repairs, corner of Twenty-first and I streets northwest, to cost $165.

No Christmas table should be without a bottle of Angostura Bitters, the world renowned appetizer of exquisite flavor. Ask for the genuine article manufactured by Dr. J. G. H. Steiger & Sons.

The Circuit Court.
The January term of the circuit court was convened yesterday by Judge Hagner. W.
H. Ross, J. G. Martin, and Lewis Auerbach were returned not found when the jury was called, and John P. Prather, Thomas Hyde, and C. G. Thorn were excused. The marshal was directed to summon six takersmen to fill the vacancies.

Great bargains. Selling out entire stock of the late and famous H. H. H. Clothing, the class merchant tailor, make, little worn; Watches, Jewelry, Guns, Pistols, Hats, Caps, and other goods too numerous to mention. The building will be taken down and I will return from this business. Call and secure bargains.

206 Ninth street northwest.

The Confidence Game.
Frank Warner, alias George W. Morgan, and George Kelley, the two alleged confidence men, were charged with swindling D. H. Cory in the police court yesterday. Mr. Cory told the story of the swindle and the case was sent to the grand jury and bonds fixed at $3,000.
